Agenda

Will you lead your team into a healthcare future powered by artificial intelligence?

All industries are undergoing disruptive digital transformation through Artificial Intelligence (AI), Augmented Reality (AR), Virtual Reality (VR), Internet of Things (IoT), cyber-physical systems, cloud computing, cognitive computing, big data, 5G, and robotics.

Those who can strategically implement AI and FutureTech into their organization will realize exponential results and become tomorrow's industry leaders. Go from not understanding what AI is all about to having the foundation and confidence to build a solid AI strategy to meet specific business objectives.

Duration: 2 x 4 hours

Dr Andrée Bates

Dr. Bates is a pioneering entrepreneur with blended expertise in Artificial Intelligence (AI), Healthcare, and Marketing. She is known for being steps ahead of the curve, diving in, and strategically conquering the “unknown” before competitors. She founded Eularis (www.eularis.com) to provide cutting-edge analytics based on artificial intelligence within the Pharmaceutical Industry. She then founded AI-cademy (www.ai-cademy.ai) for women's day in 2021 to help female entrepreneurs embrace the time-saving and revenue-generating benefits of this powerful tech. Dr. Bates has worked in Pharmaceuticals since 1993 in Europe, USA, Japan, UK and China.
